THE NOTTINGHAM RETURNS TO FULL MORTGAGE DISTRIBUTION

The Nottingham has today returned to full mortgage distribution across its broker network.

It is a move that comes just over two weeks after the building society announced a phased return, via 12 networks and large firms, having previously withdrawn its products in late September to work through unprecedented numbers of summer applications.

Head of Intermediary Sales, Nikki Warren-Dean, said: “We have been true to our word and are fully up and running again with distribution to our entire broker network – as we said a couple of weeks ago that we were looking to do very soon.

“Returning in a structured and measured way was really important to ensure we could maintain the high levels of service we pride ourselves on, and we are delighted to now be in a position to be working with our entire network again.”

The Nottingham has returned to market with a range of fixed rate and discount residential, buy-to-let, limited company buy-to-let and self-build products and is up-to-date with, and working within, its published service-level agreements.
